DANCES.

With the beautiful Toltec ballroom as a setting for the elaborately gowned women and well groomed men, the dance given last evening by the El Paso Social club surpassed in brilliancy anything ever given by this popular club.
The ballroom was a blaze of light and color, and when thronged with dancers, presented a brilliant and animated scene. This was the first of a series of four dances that will be given during the winter by the club, which is composed of many of the most prominent people of the city.
A number of the officers and their wives from Fort Bliss were present, and, through the courtesy of Col. A. C. Sharpe, the Fort Bliss military band rendered the music for the dancers.
At midnight delightful refreshments of sandwiches, coffee and ices were served. Among those in attendance were:
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Turney, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Leavell, Mr. and Mrs. John

L. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Van Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Temple, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Krakauer, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Marr, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Weisiger, Mrs. Lella T. Moore, Mrs. R. M. Wolcott, Mrs. Lula H. Montgomery, Mrs. William Glasgow, Mrs. Schley, Mrs. Turner, Misses Josie Marr, Gladys Dyer, Frances Clark, Lillian Newton, Ruth McCurdy, Anne Lee Gaines, Nannie Lackland, Henrietta Buckler, Janie, Anna Grace and Gertrude Ellis, Martha Thurmond, Wanda Race, Bessie Donohue, Ethel White, Herd, Helen Cooper, Kathrine Coles, Bennett, Virginia Semple, Austin, Anna Shelton, Messrs. Francis Moore, Ralph Henderson, L. G. Witherspoon, George Wines, W. K. Marr, Edgar Kayser, Hugh Marshall, B. F. Stevens, Robert Niell, Fanning Stevens, J. M. Ridley, J. B. Kilpatrick, J. B. Vance, Wallace Downing, Maury Kemp, Charles Loomis, C. N. Bassett, Vance Stewart, Walter Falvey, Frank Stewart, Snell, Benjamin Cowan, DeLefre, Morrow, Thues, Bradson.

Judge Leigh Clark and daughter, Miss Frances Clark, will entertain with a reception and dance on Monday evening, November 7, at the Toltec club.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Little Billie Behr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Behr, entertained a number of his friends Tuesday afternoon in celebration of his fifth birthday anniversary.
Various merry games delighted the little folks and delicious refreshments of ices, cake and candy were served. The guests were: Cathrine Fassett, Kathrine Griffith, Mary and Lucille McIndes, Frances Skidmore, Margaret Behr, Dorothy Cowan, Richard Fassett, Raymond and Charles Kircher, Frank and Arthur Hensel, Goodwin Ellis, George Harvey, Cecil Tilton, Herbert Cowan.
Dr. M. P. Schuster, Providence hospital. Office hours from 7 to 10 and from 2 to 5.

WOMAN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

The new art department of the Woman's club held its first meeting Wednesday afternoon, when much interest was manifested in the study of the day—the life and works of Michael Angelo. Mrs. C. H. Campbell, the chairman, presided.
Mrs. Ada Lorentzen gave an excellent paper on the life of Angelo.
A general description of the frescos of the artist was given in pleasing and lucid style by Mrs. Alice P. Thompson.
Mrs. Hell Hale explained the ceiling of theistine chapel, which was most interesting.
Miss Florence Barnes explained "The Holy Family" and "Three Fates," and was followed with a most delightful talk by Mrs. B. B. Bailey on the "Last Judgment," one of the painter's greatest works, which the speaker saw when abroad.
Roll call was responded to with two minute talks on the life and works of the artist.

Next Wednesday regular club day—the Woman's club will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. W. R. Brown.
The program will be as follows:
Mark Twain, the man—Address, W. H. Burges; the author, Mrs. W. H. Winter.
Reading—Mrs. C. O. Rucker.
Music—Miss Helen Cooper.
After the program a social half-hour will be enjoyed.

The next regular meeting of the directors of the Woman's club will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the club rooms.

At a called meeting of the directors of the Woman's club Wednesday afternoon, at the close of the art meeting, the following women were elected members of the club: Mrs. Guy L. Warren, Mrs. O. H. Baum, Mrs. George Sauer, Miss Annie Stolaroff.
The courtesies of the club were extended to Miss Henrietta Buckler and Mrs. Daisy E. Keltner.

Mrs. Van Wilson, president of the Associated Charities, assisted by the president, Mrs. W. R. Brown, and Mrs. J. C. Lackland, and other officers and heads of committees, is actively engaged in making preparations for the annual ball, which is the principal source of the charity's income.

It is well known that all social El Paso will be in attendance, thus showing appreciation of the good work accomplished through this means.

Mrs. Hell Hale will be the hostess next week for the Shakespeare Reading club.

The next meeting of the Phi Psi club will be held at the home of Miss Margaret Darbyshire.

Mrs. Ysabel Flato will be the next hostess for the Thursday Lunch club.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock the Women's Home Mission society of the Highland Park Methodist church will give a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nichols in Altura Park.
Friday night Mrs. Jesse R. Burton organized a choir for this church, there being 12 members present.

The Sunshine Workers were very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. T. Bowie on Nevada street. The afternoon was spent in sewing and conversation, and dainty refreshments were served.

One of the largest and most elaborate club events of the season was the reception given yesterday afternoon by the retiring officers of the U. D. C., complimentary to the present officers of the chapter.

The affair took place at the Elks' club, and many callers were in evidence during the entire afternoon.

Little Charlie Kelly stood just inside the doorway to receive the cards from the guests, while Mrs. J. E. Bowen distributed confederate flag badges as souvenirs of the afternoon.

In the receiving line to welcome the callers were: Mesdames C. E. Kelly, E. F. Croom, V. P. Safford, W. L. Brown, H. E. Runkle, Sam Gatlin, Frank Payne, A. R. Barlow, Misses Josie Wooten, Myra Prater, Mamie Sexton, Myra Winkler.

The handsomely appointed club was decorated with the confederate colors and flags. A flag hanging above the mantel and one that contained 27 bullet holes, was carried by Maj. John E. Barlow, one of Forest's men in the last battle on the Siple river. The flag was made in Columbus, Miss., and was hurriedly placed together from scraps of calico by a number of young women, who presented it to Maj. Barlow.

The refreshment table, where tea and wafers were served, was spread with a handsome drawwork cover, and held a centerpiece of red and white carnations.
White candles, supported by cut glass holders, added brilliancy and charm to the scene.

Among the young women pouring tea were: Misses Hattie May Loretz, Florence Comfort, Ada May Lindop, Wanda Race, Frances Jenkins, Clara Reese Coleman, Augusta Markgraff.
Assisting in serving punch to the callers were: Mary Gates Redmond, Ann, Elizabeth and Mary Kelly, Tama O'Keefe, Helen and Louise Kettler, Nellie May Bowen, Alice Jones, Margaret Wood side and others.

The hostesses for the afternoon were: Mrs. C. E. Kelly, Mrs. Safford, Miss Myra Winkler, Miss Mamie Sexton and Miss Myra Prater, who were assisted by other members of the chapter and their friends.

A most pleasing musical program was given in which many of the leading musicians of the city took part.
Mr. Lock, a confederate veteran, 86 years of age, sang a confederate song, which was much enjoyed.

WEDDINGS.

Of the many charming fall brides, none have been honored by more delightful pre-nuptial social affairs than Miss Josephine Marr, the daughter of Mrs. James Marr, who will be married Tuesday to Dr. Louis Gibbons Witherspoon.

The wedding will take place at high noon at St. Clement's Episcopal church and will be attended by a large number of friends.

Miss Marr is very popular with the social set, and the prospective groom also has a wide circle of friends in El Paso.

Leonard H. Vanderwerf and Miss Minnie E. Hunt, both of El Paso, were married Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at 1413 Wyoming street, by Rev. H. P. Bond.

The groom has just finished a neat country home for his bride's reception, six miles down the valley on the county road.

Mrs. F. C. Mentzer, of this city, has received cards announcing the engagement of her niece, Miss Kathleen Malony, to Theobald Count von Geldern-Edmond, of Arren, lieutenant of Fusiliers, regiment of Cersdorff, bodyguard to the emperor.

(Signed)
"First Lieut. Ekse and Wife."
Mrs. Ekse, formerly Mrs. W. O'S. Malony, has many friends in El Paso.

At a party given last evening Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Harless announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lenita Beatrice, to Louis Carl le Veaux, the marriage to occur on November 22.

The decorations and table appointments suggestive of Halloween were most unique. Refreshments were served from five small tables, which were adorned with pumpkins, witches, black cats, etc.
The heart shaped post cards held on the outside stamp pictures of the bride and groom elope, while the inside contained the announcement of the approaching marriage.

Green tapers in yellow candlesticks were used, and yellow shades softened the electric lights.

The dainty menu further developed the decorative scheme of yellow and green.

The guest list included: Misses Hazel Harvey, Bertha Halls, Dorris Eggers, Mary Lewis, Sadie Kerr, Margaret Kinnon, Dorothy Dinnan, Birdie Kerr, Leila Robertson, Donna Truesdale, Elizabeth Goff, Margaret Lawler, Edna Goff, Ollie Davis, Della Eggers, Ruth Crichtett, Flo Goff, Amy Schuit, Ada Goff, Pansy Robertson.

A Cordial Invitation to Fair Visitors!

To miss visiting Feldman's when you come to El Paso would be to overlook one of the most interesting places in the city.

Our collection of Framed Pictures, Pottery, Terra Cotta Impressions of Famous English Scenes, Bric-a-Brac and Art Novelties is worth a visit to El Paso in itself.

Of course a Feldman Fotograf will be among the many important items to be attended to during Fair week.

See our special ad. in Monday's Herald. It will be of interest to visitors and home folks alike.
